

Two independent inversions — each gives its own cross-karyotype barrier signal

